Oh angel
What do you say
If you see things
See things this way

Oh angel
Don't turn away
When you see me
See me this way

Oh, never let me go, oh no
Never let me go, oh no

Oh angel
I can't pretend
Any longer
This road must end

Oh angel
I don't intend
To be helpless

Blown by the wind

Watching from below, oh no
Watching from below, oh no

Disenchantment ignites all my pleas
Hopelessness brings me down to my knees
Your assurance is all that I need
To know there is something to believe

Oh angel
My defenses are laid
And I hold myself to the stake

Oh angel
My conscience debates
Can salvation ever be too late?
