"Put It Away"

I would personally like to say hello to you
Hello
Now you're supposed to say hello to me please
Well when does it come
I'm so tired of waiting for your voice
God I've been waiting almost twenty years
And you don't seem to have any ears
Well I quit, I quit
Because I'm too drunk to worry about your fears
So why don't you stop your foolin' around with Everybody you see
'Cause nobody is worth anything not even me
All you can do is ride around
And you hope that someone calls you
Oh I'm through
I'm so through
Well I guess I would like to say goodbye
If I wanna waste my time
