He was feeling
Kind of restless I guess
She was dreaming
And counting her blessings
Trouble is on a glorious day
You start believing
Bad can be good someday, bad can be good someday

CHORUS

There are moments I
Fool around in my head
But the locust got high
On the good I should have said
Mountains and earthquakes
May come down from their hills
Yet I cannot find a place where I can be still
There are moments I
Fool around

She was calling
Crying out to deaf ears
He was falling
Paralysed by his fears
Then he came like a thief in the night
Stole all her courage and took
All her might
Took all her might
Away
Away

CHORUS

There are moments I
Fool around in my head
But the locust got high
On the good I should have said
Mountains and earthquakes
May come down from their hills
Yet I cannot find a place where I can be still
There are moments I
Fool around

There's never a right time
To say the wrong thing
Every word I ever heard
Don't mean anything
No it don't mean anything

Ooh

CHORUS to fade/guitar solo
