I've always been the lucky one
That's why I rolled the dice and took a chance You're what I won

Now every night before I sleep
I realize the prize is all that you've given to me

We've gone beyond what we dreamed
Life is so much more than it seemed

(I used to be in love)
I never thought there could be more than what we've had so long
(I used to be in love)
I never thought there could be more but I was oh, so wrong
(I used to be in love)
But now I know there's something better and it feels so strong
(I used to be in love)
Yes, now I know there's something better and it comes along with love

Whatever treasure I might find I wouldn't dare compare to what we have Growing with time

With every day that passes by
I can discover again why all I want is you by my side

We've gone beyond what we dreamed
Life is so much more than it seemed

(I used to be in love)
I never thought there could be more than what we've
had so long
(I used to be in love)
I never thought there could be more but I was oh, so
wrong
(I used to be in love)
But now I know there's something better and it feels so
strong

(I used to be in love)
Yes, now I know there's something better and it comes
along with love

Now all those plans
That I thought were so complete
Are upside down
But the turnaround's so sweet

Don't know why
But I can't deny what's real
I am your someone, your only someone That's me
In love
