So afraid
You hesitate I swim across
At water's edge
You stop and gather moss

Look ahead
The churning sea can be your friend
With one foot in
The journey can begin

Do what you gotta do
See what you gotta see
Go where you gotta go (Cast away the fear that finds you)
Be what you gotta be

Hear what you gotta hear
Need what you gotta need (And let it float away)
Give what you gotta give

Rising tide
Won't wash away the cross you bear
The course is yours

Don't drown in your despair

I will wait
But I won't come to your defense
There's no escape
From truth and consequence

Do what you gotta do
See what you gotta see
Go where you gotta go (Cast away the fear that finds
you)
Be what you gotta be

Hear what you gotta hear
Need what you gotta need (And let it float away)
Give what you gotta give

Let go don't give up (You say you will, you say it's enough)

Let go and be free Let go don't give up (You say you will, you say will but that's not enough)
