I think
The goal of life is
Make a man feel like a god
I know your angel moves
You
Fell back
Like an injured animal
I watched
The street we were on
Your angel doesn't die
I set you back, that's all
Someone has to watch the road-
You're gone
I'm here
You're here

And I haven't lost art things (?)
I got my vision
That's where I go
I'm so pleased to meet you
How did you get here
You're all around me
You're not even here
