Out there crying in the noonday sun
Gentleman come but she didn't get none
A year ago she was a friend of mine
Didn't need a fix, just a little wine
Wish I didn't have to see her this way
Cast a dark shadow over my day
I'm not crazy about the way things go
Seen it all before at a movie show
There'll be another man in a little while Walking down the road just another mile
She's a thief

She's a harlot
You can take your pick
Gotta make the payment on another kick
