First I came to see the doctor, told him I was unemployed

Asked me what I did for money, told him I was overjoyed

To reach into the basket, take a bunch of dimes Drop them near the paper riddled with my rhymes Take a message to the clerk, tell him not to work Then I came to the priest, said I knew God was alive He looked at me quite solemn, said  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\hat{a}$ ,  $-\tilde{A}$ ... "Son don't give me that jive $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\hat{a}$ ,  $-\tilde{A}$ ,  $\hat{A}$  I reached into my pocket, pulled out a .45 Said  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\hat{a}$ ,  $-\tilde{A}$ ... "Priest I got your number, and this here ain't no jive $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\hat{a}$ ,  $-\tilde{A}$ ,  $\hat{A}$

Take a message to the clerk, tell him not to work Then I came to see the man at the center of the town Said  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}$ ¢ $\hat{a}$ ,  $\neg \tilde{A}$ ..."Hey there Mister Leader, you're looking at a clown

I don't engage in nothing except hangin' around I'm living high, I'm living low, I'm just screaming the sound  $\hat{A}f\hat{A}$   $\hat{A}$ ,  $\hat{A}$

Take a message to the clerk, tell him not to work
Then I came to see myself, I got a nervous quirk
Behind a gun I lurk, he looks to me berserk
He pushes (?) at his time, he's running down a line
Face all dripping down, carrying a sign
Take a message to the clerk, tell him not to work
And now you're independent, brush your teeth three times a day

Remember how I told you, remember how I say That you've seen a hundred persons, and you've called me down today

Just to hear how lovely it sounds to hear me say Take a message to the clerk, tell him not to work
