You took me by the hand
You led me to a private place
I didn't know what time it was I came into
I didn't have to start
It just happened to be one step I took
It was one step I took,
The only one step I took
One step I took
I didn't know what I did
It was, oh, something for me
I couldn't tell the other part
Maybe I'll find out later
I do believe I will [4x]
Because who wants to stop
Not me
I expect I'll see you again
Anyway I'll never forget the time that you were there
You added a new dimension
Like I said, I didn't expect that thing to happen
When I said that, you knew it happened
The best part is, I don't need any special thing
But if you're there, you'll find about it
I suppose I'm talking to the right person
I know everybody comes and goes
Does it have to be that way
Let's take a look at it

I'd like to be in your presence
Can I see you
Let's set aside the time
I'll fall into another one of those moments
Will you, will you fall into that same moment
I'm ready for all the different outcomes
At least I hope I'm ready
But you didn't make me nervous before
You told everybody you liked me
You made me say I liked you
All right so you had to pull me out of me
I was so deeply buried
I needed your air
And now I feel so alive
I don't see anything different

It must be you, I accept that
We'll see where it leads to
If you want to touch me I wouldn't mind
It doesn't happen too often, this kind of thing
