The portal grows and grows, I'm almost
I'm on the edge I know, I'm almost
It's all the way this time, I'm almost
It's gonna blow my mind, I'm almost

I'm turning on, I'm almost beautiful
I'm going, gone, I'm almost beautiful
Come on, come on, I'm almost beautiful
The light is on, I'm almost beautiful
I'm almost God, I'm almost beautiful
Come on, come on, I'm almost beautiful

It doesn't hurt at all, I'm almost I'm walking through that wall, I'm almost
It's all the way this time, I'm almost
I'm almost beautiful, I'm almost

I wandered through an eye, changed a thousand times
Somehow I don't care, I'll leave it sitting there
I'm trying not to try, the window's open wide
This could be goodbye
