Baby, Baby Do Whatcha Do, what you're doing
Baby loving you, and I do boy, Boy you move me
When the day is through, honeydew and no fooling
Ooh wee whatcha do, baby do what you're doing

Ooh I got it bad, I got it good
Baby making love feel like it should
You came like an answer to a prayer
I'm all hung up and baby I don't care
I've never been in love like this before
Every second I fall even more
Closer baby than I realize
One away from drowning in your eyes

Baby, Baby Do Whatcha Do, what you're doing
Baby loving you, and I do boy, Boy you move me
When the day is through, honeydew and no fooling
Ooh wee whatcha do, baby do what you're doing

Nothing else on earth could feel like this
Oh you took me prisoner with a kiss

Never wanted anything this much
I'm feeling my salvation in your touch
Ooh how did you know, how did you know
I was so afraid to let it show
Oh I want you so much I could die
Barely breathing, never so alive

I caught a feeling, I never knew before
Oh it's good, it's good, it's good, it's good, so good, so good
I'm beginning to falter, I'm only human, oh baby

Boy your love is heavy, love is deep
Oh you really knocked me off my feet
Hold me close and whisper in my ear
All those things that lovers love to hear
Baby when you look at me that way
You tell me more than words could ever say
Oh it's so amazing, it's so right
Making love with you all through the night
