Questioning the answers, looking for a passage to the light

Reaching out for something, anything to make it through the night

I don't need tomorrow anymore, for this moment I am higher

Closer than I've ever been before, and I feel it for the first time

My imagination never could have dreamed a dream like this

A silent revelation, clear enough to know it's a good thing when it is Nothing ventured, nothing gained,

Even now it's still the same
To the moon and back again,
Unafraid and unashamed

All my life I have waited for this
The stars align and the planets promise
And all creation united strong in our Perfect Love

Little four-leaf clover never really took me very far I really thought it over, there's more to this than wishing on a star

As we decorate the righteous way, as we're praying for asylum Sanctuary's not so far away, as we see it for the first time

Beautiful forever, more than just a miracle to me
I want to know it better Opened up my eyes and the truth has set me free

And we know without a sound,
Sweet as honey, love profound Fear is lost and joy is found Ours forever, solid ground

All my life I have waited for this
The stars align and the planets promise
And all creation united strong in our Perfect Love

In the dark and unfamiliar I will not look away Like a junkie for the real thing, I banish yesterday
Here we are now, Oh my darling, I'm feeling something
