Yes the ghost of Christmas yet to come
Has left his mark on everyone
Though the winter's looming dark and near
There's time to see while spring's still here

Don't turn your face to the wall
Trust in the strength of the small

Though uncertainty in every heart
And differences tear us apart
Oldest prophecies already true
Fear no mysteries, just me and you

Heaven on earth in a day
Always a will and always a way

Hold on (Brother)
Hold on
(Sister)
Sleep in peace, sleep in peace
