Thou art God, all the evidence I ever need
Never shake my faith, I know, I know what it means
No books, no magic words, we don't need a ritual
Absolute truth, it's so personal

Now I understand
Now I know it's true
Now I know it's me
Now I know it's you

You are
You're my religion now
You're my religion

You and I remain, we're one in the same
No flesh, no blood can change
No more doubt or fear, your mouth to my ear

Use me, flow through me, I am listening
Sing through me, let the song be pure
I know why I'm here, I've been here before
I know how it ends, it never ends

Now I understand
(Heaven and hell)
Now I know it's true
(Heaven and hell)

Now I know it's me
(Heaven and hell)
Now I know it's you
(Heaven and hell)

You are
(My religion now)
You're my religion now
(My religion now)
You're my religion
(My religion now)

You and I remain, we're one in the same
No flesh, no blood can change

No more doubt or fear, your mouth to my ear
My religion now

In my native tongue I can call your name
Any name, what's in a name, I'd love you just the same
Thou art God, all the evidence I need
Never shake my faith, I know what it means

Now I understand
(Heaven and hell)
Now I know it's true
(Heaven and hell)

Now I know it's me
(Heaven and hell)
Now I know it's you
(Heaven and hell)

You are
(My religion now)
You're my religion now
(My religion now)
You're my religion now
(My religion now)
You're my religion now
(My religion now)

You are
(My religion now)
You're my religion now
(My religion now)
You're my religion now
(My religion now)
You're my religion now
(My religion now)

You are
(My religion now)
You're my religion now
(My religion now)
You're my religion
