I went out with Wolf tonight
I had so many worries on my mind
I was feeling lost, feeling confused, feeling afraid
I wanted to hide

But when I got home after work
Wolf would not let me stay inside
So I put on my heavy coat and kerchief
And closed the door behind us

I followed Wolf across the road
He took a trail that leads up through the forest
I saw Wolf's shadow moving through the trees
Ahead of me

Don't go too fast Wolf and finally we got to the other side
It was so still, it was so bright and clear
For there stretched before us Like a ballroom glove in the moonlight lay the snowfields

It was a starry night
And the snow had stopped falling
And I feel that I heard
Someone singing

Fly us to the moon high above
Our upturned faces booming in the bright
Send some good things
Down on this earth tonight

Wolf ran out into the glittering fields
I stood and watched him from the treeline
The starry heavens danced down on the snow
Then up again like gateways gathering

Then somehow I was out there with Wolf
I stared at him he looked so different
Oh, Wolf I can't stop laughing
But I feel somehow that everything is all right

I don't know how many miles we traced across the snow
Maybe a thousand
I followed Wolf in peace and I don't even know
If we were breathing

And part of me never went home after that night
I think it stayed there
But it is in good care beneath the stars
Above the fields of snow that stretch there
