We didn't know that it would blow up
With such might
The stars are even brighter
Contrasted by the night

Sent out shock waves
Filled up the outer space
Even the ghost came
To the late, late, late show
Watch us play

Everything went tossing
Everyone was talking
Making up their faces
Wonder what we look like naked?

Ah the irresistible force met the immovable object
Oh!
Ah the irresistible force met the immovable object

Banging and banging
And banging and banging
And banging
Together

We've become a big business
A galaxy merger
The two of us a big bang
God is a real man
God is a dad (x2)

Ah! The irresistible force met the immovable object
Oh!
Ah! The irresistible force met the immovable object

Banging and banging
And banging and banging
And banging together

Ah! The irresistible force met the immovable object
Oh!

Some may call me a lucky shot
No, but it was not

Banging and banging
And banging and banging
And banging and banging
Banging and banging
And banging and banging
And banging together
