Heard it all before --- Janet Gabriel

I've given you the benefit (..of the doubt)
I trusted everything you did
Though they said you played around
Now u throw the love I gave you (...in my face)
And give me reason to believe your smiles were fake
You never take responsibility
If it's not what you call fun
I should have known this from the start, baby
We should never have begun

Chorus

First you say that you will
Then you tell me you won't
You confuse me with each passing day
And I don't know you anymore
You say u love me, you don't
Never leave me, you go
Now I don't believe a word you say
'Cos I've heard it all before

What u say conflicts with everything you do
And doesn't mirror anything you feel in truth
When you gonna grow up and be a man of your word
It's only fair I know the truth even if it really hurts

There's no point in dwelling on the past
What is past is done and gone
And I'm ready to move forward now
And forget the things you've done
But something tells me that you'll never change
'Cos you've been this way so long
So I'm thinking that it's over now
We should never have begun

Chorus

First you say that you will
Then you tell me you won't
You confuse me with each passing day
And I don't know know you anymore
You say u love me, you don't

Never leave me, you go
Now I don't believe a word you say
'Cos I've heard it all before

We should never have begun
You say you're sorry then you blame me
For the things that you've done
You only look out for number one
First you say that you will
Then you tell me you won't
We should never have begun
