I was just standing, turning around
That's when they caught me headin' down
Keep on going don't look away
That's what they tell me, that's what they say

OOOOh, OOOh, OOOOh

Yeah, that's what they tell me, that's what they say

You're a pretty thought I support
Yeah, I'm just tryin' to hold up as I go
And one day I swear I'll spread my wings
I'm on my way to finer things

OOOOh, OOOh, OOOOh

I'm on my way to finer things

It wasn't just me playin' those games
Still it's my own fault just the same
I opened up, I let you in
Now these crystal feelings are wearing thin

OOOOh, OOOh, OOOOh

I opened up, I let you in

I'm walkin' with the fortune teller
I can see my own way home
But I don't like this dark road anymore
And I don't want to be alone for long

OOOOh, OOOh, OOOOh

Don't want to be alone for long
I don't want to be on this dark road alone!
