Goonies never say die!
Shouting at the devil!
And 99 hot air balloons!
Unknown to you, what planet are you from?
Maiden had the trooper, Ramones had psycho therapy
While Bryan, he just cuts like a knife,
Do you remember E.T. trying to phone home
While Ronald introduced MC Nuggets to the whole wide world...

I just can't explain, how it feels to live in 1983
Yeah, I wonder who's to blame, for MTV, the goonies
and atari!

Slayer showed no mercy
While Bad Religion went 'into the unknown'.
And Bowie wanted to dance...
Michael thrilled the planet and Chesney Hawkes,
I loved that guy, I'm telling you 'he was the one and only'!
Sweet Dreams were made of this,
I'll hold a special place when ZZ TOP
Were sharp dressed men and begging us for love...

I just can't explain, how it feels to live in 1983
Yeah, I wonder who's to blame, for MTV, the goonies
and atari!

I think we're alone now... tonight...
I don't wanna go home now... not tonight...

We had Bronski Beat and Megadeth,
Run DMC began to rap
And John Bon Jovi started up a band

Metallica had 'kill 'em all'
Exploited sang 'let's start a war'
And Sting was counting 'every breath you took'...
The eighties got me hooked...
