Friendly unguarded and
Clearly shrewd enough
You totally blinded me
Your aggressive charm,
It didn't alarm me
Truly amazing
Now I wish I was stronger
'Cause the days without anger are far behind us
If I had the power
To the key to be honest
I'd tell you over and over
In a million other ways

Excuses more excuses
Just gimme time
To clear my mind
This is my anti-anthem!

I look at the crowd
But I've never felt so alone
My devotion is fading
When words become fists

Hope no longer exists and
I feel like I'm drowning
Now I've come to the point
That I don't even care
There's intense confusion
I can't seem to outrun
And when we're together
I tell you over and over
It's like we're a million miles apart

Excuses more excuses
Just gimme time
To clear my mind
This is my anti-anthem

I'm not gonna stick around
