Don't believe the complacent defeatist smug as fuck
Baby boomer propaganda
We've been force-fed to simply believe or brutally swallow

Truly sorry but your fuzzy thinking and sanitized
Revisionism in the world will never convince me
Of your right and my wrong.

But if you think
Today's kids are ill-informed and self-important jerks,
You might be right
But if you think
Today's kids will remain the same victims of your scams,

I despise your neglect of spiritual depth in life While you choke on your own gratifying parody of authenticity

Truly sorry but your fuzzy thinking and sanitized
Revisionism in the world will never convince me
Of your right and my wrong

But if you think
Today's kids are ill-informed and self-important jerks,
You might be right,
But if you think
Today's kids will remain the same victims of your
scams,
You must be wrong
