And no more shall we part, day nor night will separate.
I'd sacrifice my everything 'cause you helped me. To carry on. Reassured me that it's OK, brought the real of time within me.

I was waiting for an angel to release me from my fears.

Till the end of the world. I will love you till the end of time. Would give up all or sacrifice.

Till the end of the world. I will love you till the end of time. Hope forever you will be just mine.

And no more shall I hide. Disconnected from my shadows. Wherever you go I will follow.

I was waiting for an angel to release me from my fears.

Till the end of the world. I will love you till the end of time. Would give up all or sacrifice.

Till the end of the world. I will love you till the end of time. Hope forever you will be just mine.

Even if the bitter wind will whisper pain and grief.

As rain falls
as blood stills
as eyes die
we will survive.

As lives burn
As we freeze
I will be there

Till the end of the world. I will love you till the end of time. Would give up all or sacrifice.

Till the end of the world. I will love you till the end of time. Hope forever you will be just mine.
