When I was 14 I used to be beaten up every day after school yeah
This brat used to run off with my candybars too
He had a twisted mind and I was frazzled as ever What did he want from me except for my Reeces, my Reeces
Pieces

I know what you're expecting me to sing right now
A real tough story like 'I punched his nose one day'

Well that's not quite how the tale goes I'm not real strong see,
I just got a big mouth, so I just informed our school's principal
Yep back then I was just a wiener, loser and things haven't changed much,
But at least now I don't tell,
I just am for the Bull's eye and run like a pro dude

I wear my Martens when I go out
No shithead's telling me what I should do or not

Dr's with a steel toe, works all the time,
Tear gas base ball stick's fine
I'll smash their face down
All my friends go work out,
They're bionic punks always sticking up for me,
So fruitcakes watch out.
I'm not that bad you know,
I've just learned to protect my dignity and teeth...
And I guess that I'll do it again and again

I've learned to earn my respect in our hometown
Nobody messes with me or my buds so...
