"A Piece of My Life"

I feel breathe, live alone with my love
Gave it to you
I should have known
Reality will never be a dream

In my dreams I walk around
In the darkness of my ashes
Always following your light
I feel no fear, your fire gives me safety

I feel no fear
I feel no fear
'Cause your fire gives me safety

My fire burns deep and ardent
But I radiate just coldness
And hopeless helplessness
Awkward like a child

Everyday I fell
The reflection of the wide void
I don't want to live just want a dream
The reflection, wide void

I don't want to live, just want to dream
Come on and play with me

I feel no fear
I feel no fear
