A long distance run without any tension
Raptured soul - Raptured life
A long distance run without any tension
Grow in the half of a night - Bloom
Live this life in straight lines
Step aside, step below
Watch yourself falling
Flight lines, light lines become clear
Slightly I remember the way to the origin of despair
Reality is what comes first
Attempt to see through my eyes
Careless and senseless devotion
Nothingness is a part of me
On the behalf of you imagination
The blackend curtain seems to fall
Beside the stage we lose out soul
A different place, a distant time
Say goodbye
Salvation
Blacken the earth and darken the sky
Blacken the earth and darken the sky
The blackend curtain seems to fall
Beside the stage we lose out soul
A different place, a distant time
Say goodbye
Salvation
A long distance run without any tension
Raptured soul - Raptured life
A long distance run without any tension
Grow in the half of a night - Bloom
Live this life in straight lines
Step aside, step below
Watch yourself falling
Watch yourself falling
