I got a picture of your house and you're standing by the door
It's black and white and faded, it's looking through the wall
I see the factory that you worked, seen the wedding in the back
The memories of great demand they really coming back

I don't need to be the king of the world
As long as I'm a hero of this little girl

Heaven isn't too far away, closer to it everyday
No matter what your friends might say

How I love the way you move and the sparkle in your eyes
There's a color deep inside and like a blue suburban sky
When I come home late at night and you're in bed asleep
I'll wrap my arms around you so I can feel you near

And I don't need to be a Superman
As long as you will always be my biggest fan

Heaven isn't too far away, closer to it everyday, oh
No matter what your friends might say, we'll find a way, oh yeah

Now the lights are going out, long and cool above
Memories come rushing back and makes it pretty hard
Like I've nowhere left to go no one really cares
I don't what to do but I'm never giving up on you

Heaven isn't too far away, closer to it everyday, oh
No matter what your friends say, I know it gonna find a way
Heaven, woah, heaven, woah, heaven is not too far away, woah, yeah
