If rose is green and grass is red
Will you remember what I said
Baby don't forget before you regret
Stuck in my mind
A needle through my head

The light you shine into the night
You take away my fright
And for everytime I see you I try
What I try to say is stay with me tonight

For what I really feel inside
My eyes won't let me hide
Every time I see you they start to cry
Cause this time my love it could mean goodbye
Don't say goodnight

If rose is green and grass is red
Will you remember what I said
Baby don't forget before you regret
Stuck in my mind
A needle through my head

The light you shine into the night
You take away my fright
And for everytime I see you I try
What I try to say is stay with me tonight

For what I really feel inside
My eyes won't let me hide
Every time I see you they start to cry
Cause this time my love it could mean goodbye
Don't say goodnight
