Feast or famine, God or Mammon priest or shaman " opposites attract Saints and sinners, losers, winners rank beginners " there's no going back My old man was a dreamer Dreamed his life away Sometimes dreams are realler than the roles we play Daddy used to say

You don't walk another man's path
You don't sing another man's song
and you don't pay the whores of Babylon
The road is never straight
The way is always long but one thing I can say before I'm gone
Life is never wrong

People used to laugh and say You never ought to make the truth your bride Marry money, fill your tummy Only junkies live to get that high My first love was beauty
She tried so hard to please Then she introduced me to the beast Knocked me to my knees

You don't walk another man's path
You don't sing another man's song
and you don't pay the whores of Babylon
The road is never straight
The way is always long
but one thing I can say before I'm gone
Life is never wrong

Hold your head up high no matter what the weight Look life in the eye, don't hesitate Life won't wait

You don't walk another man's path

You don't sing another man's song
and you don't pay the whores of Babylon
The road is never straight
The way is always long
but one thing I can say before I'm gone
Life is never wrong
