Women to be in-a the music business give up more than you'd ever know. she's got kids she gave up. any woman gives up home life, an old man, probably, because you're so crazy on planes and run And you never find 'em egain. you give up, you give up a home and friends, you give up children and friends, you give up the old man and friends, you give up every constant in the world except m That's the only thing you've got man, when you boil it down, the only thing you got left in the world is that music, man. and, so for a woman to sing, she really needs to, or wants to. a man ca
It as a gig, 'cause he knows he c'n get laid tonight.
