Olivia Newton-John: I know it's been a long time now;
you've been hanging at the end of your rope.
Jann Arden: I know that you've been strong somehow,
but now you're down to your last tray of hope.
ONJ: There are some things only your heart can see JA: There are some things that you've got to believe
Both: Look over your shoulder,
ONJ: There's an angel in the wings
(JA: Angel in the wings)
Both: The good times and hard times,
ONJ: There's an angel in the wings
(JA: Angel in the wings)
ONJ: I know that you've been drifting at sea.
Sailing on that ocean of tears
JA: It's time for you to come back to me
Both: Baby, that's why my love is here
ONJ: There are sometimes we want to be on our own
JA: There are some times when it's time to come home

Both: Look over your shoulder,
ONJ: There's an angel in the wings
(JA: Angel in the wings)
Both: The good times and hard times,
ONJ: There's an angel in the wings
(JA: Angel in the wings)
JA: I see it, oh I feel it
ONJ: There's an angel in the wings
(JA: Angel in the wings)
ONJ: So don't give up
(JA: Don' give up)
ONJ: No don't give in, there's an angel
(JA: Angel in the wings)
JA: Oh I feel it, angel in the wings, ONJ: I know it's been a long time now; you've been hanging at the end of your rope.
