You are so far away from me my love
The distance I'm missing you I've come undone Cuz every time I breathe it hurts and I cant find the words
You are so far away

Your kisses are wishes lost in a well
I wander around in some kind of hell
Cuz every time I breathe it burns, how my body yearns
You are so far away

Away, away

Every moment filled with anguish
Happiness a foreign language
In my mind I'm wrapped around your waist
But your away, away

My heart beats, oh so deep, I count the hours
My fingers, it lingers, all these dead flowers
Cuz every time I breathe I weep
I can not get to sleep
You are so far away

Away, away, away
You're away, away, away
