You know all the right people
You wear all of the right clothes
You gotta snappy little sports car - all your own
You got the cool conversation
On your high-tech telephone
But you got one little problem baby
You ain't down home.

You ain't down home
Where the people got their feet on the ground
Down home
Where there's plenty of love to go round.

You got the cool conversation
On your high-tech telephone
But you got one little problem baby
You ain't down home.

--- Instrumental ---

You gotta brand new jacuzzi
All your credit cards are gold
There ain't a high class place in town
Where you ain't known.

You make it all look impressive
Yes, you put on quite a show
You got one little problem baby
You ain't down home.

You ain't down home
Where the people got their feet on the ground
Down home
Where there's plenty of love to go round.

You make it all look impressive
Yes, you put on quite a show
You got one little problem baby
You ain't down home.

You got one little problem, baby

You ain't down home...
