"A Memory"

Last night
When we went out
Together with the world
A strange light was chasing us
We couldn't feel anything - but chemistry

In a speeding world
In the wrong direction
We chose the only way
That we could fit into
Our memories

Might as well be wrong
We shouldn't care a lot
We only got borrowed time
Chose your days
Use your talents
It's only you who can make your
Perfect life

Chose your days
Use your talent
It's only you who can make your
Perfect life

A memory
Is all we will be
