"I got my figures on the wall
Comics stacked up in the hall
I got a movie in my DVD player
I got my music that I love
And a girl sent from above
I got my problems
But they seem to little next to her

Man, oh man, I got no money
Spent it all on my new honey
I got you and you got me
And that's all that we need
No one seems to understand me
Later (???) still dont ever leave
I'm feelin sad, you're all I have
So baby, hear my plea

And even though I can't converse with you
There are so many other things that we can do
As you lay there lifeless on my bed
You're never really livin' so you can't be dead
You'll never die so tears won't be shed

So you think that I'm so cool
Not like I was bad in school
I didn't have a friend
And everyone was mean
Introverted and I know it
And i'm not afraid to show it
Cause there's no one here like me
It's my scene
Man, oh man, I can't relate to others
And it feels so great
I don't need people
Don't need friends
I only want my toys
Loving you, it must be sin
I'm talkin to myself again
But that's ok, cause momma said I'm not like other boys

And even though I can't converse with you

There are so many other things that we can do
As you lay there lifeless on my bed
You're never really livin so you can't be dead
You'll never die so tears won't be shed

Olivia, you're not a real female
But you work with me, even when relationships fail
Olivia, your skin, it feels so real
On the internet, is where I got this great deal

And even though I can't converse with you
There are so many other things that we can do
As you lay there lifeless on my bed
You're never really livin' so you can't be dead
You're never really livin' so you can't be dead
You'll never die so tears won't be shed
