I got all I need in a suitcase
And I always/never got dirt in my face
And I believe I put dust in a new age
And in my personal rider backstage

I'm feeling fine and you should too

There's always somebody to clean my ashtray/And I always got big fun on Mondays
And some wonders take care of my laundry/And I don't even think about Sundays
I put all my weekends on Mondays and Tuesdays
There's a lot of different ways to do these days

And I'm feeling fine and you should too

And I don't even mind the weather
And my head feels as light as a feather
And I think I should go out and foretell her
But I might as well tell her in a letter

That I'm feeling fine and you should too
