"Polarized"

the stain that comes rushing out in space
they cried, it falls
holding up this sinking place
war device
simple sounding chime
a strange calm
its slipping down its sinking fate

polarized and frozen now
as the memory of your face

stones that fall
clearing up this space
the walls we climb setting up this sinking place
war device
now a warning chime
a strange calm
its pressing up this sinking fate

fear rises and cold inside

its the same mistake
the fame erased
its the same mistake
the fame erased

something comes on over my shadow
someday summer bench
splitting us
splitting away

something came on over us
leave us alone
someday summer bench

like memory of your face

the fame erased
the fame erased
