Bow your head
Feel the weight of this ocean
Falling down from the sky
You need somebody
To share that emotion
The lonely mountain you climb
You're so far away tonight
And I can't hold back the rain
But when it feels like
Your soul is breaking
I will lift my hands
To heaven and pray
On that lonely night
When you're so forsaken
I will cover you
Like Amazon Rain
Cross your heart

Feel the world on your shoulders
Pull you down to your fears
You wanna know love
Flowing over and over
Find some joy in those tears
You're so far away tonight
And I can't hold back the rain
But when it feels like
Your soul will break
I will lift my hands
To heaven and pray
On that lonely night
When the world forsakes you
I will come to you
Like Amazon Rain
