Flirting new ambition
Pressure for the ceiling
No vacation on immaculate times
Domestic training, a woman's intuition
A love is churning out on factory lines

Health demanding, unfit behavior
Commuters converse in satirical signs
Know no news and no personnel crisis
With new indifferent industrial crimes

Welcome to suburban Berlin
Welcome to suburban Berlin

Love affairs and endless strategies
I don't believe in a word they said
City limits, no more information
Go follow navigation in your head

Welcome to suburban Berlin
Welcome to suburban Berlin
