I want to find, as it seems
Something's got a hold on me
I can't believe what's real
I've been there on my own

I want to find what comforts me
Comfort me before I go
Through all the days I've tried
To find out you were gone

Now I'll have to get there on my own

I decided I must go, to walk alone
No hands pushed in my back
Will I see you there you realised I'm gone
You left inside of me, but now you're gone
I feel like I am lost
Lay me down to rest
Don't miss me when
Don't miss me when I'm gone

Everything that I have done
Means nothing now, now you've gone away
You said you would meet me there
You left me on my own

I decided I must go, to walk alone
No hands pushed in my back
Will I see you there you realised I'm gone
You left inside of me, but now you're gone
I feel like I am lost
Lay me down to rest
Don't miss me when I'm gone.
