I never thought to ask you why
I wiped the teardrops from your eyes
You never tried to understand the way I am
You'll never know how much I cared

While you're gone I will wait
Hope you wont be long
See it in my face
Light without a day
I will find a way

It makes no sense that I was wrong
I find myself now on my own
I tried to find another way to make you stay
I miss you more than words can say

While you're gone I will wait
Hope you wont be long
See it in my face
Light without a day
I will find a way

You're everything I need
You're everything I hoped
It makes me forget

I will wait

You're everything I need
You're everything I hoped for
It makes me forget and

I will wait, I will wait
For you
