No eye has seen, No ear has heard
How the glory of God is gonna cover the world
It will silence the tongues of men
And give our children freedom to dance again
They will dance again

CHORUS:

I will be clay in the potter's hand
I will be light in a darkened land
I will be love lit on fire
Holy Spirit, Burn on the inside

I will be color to the black and gray
I'll raise a banner up in Jesus' name
I will be love lit on fire
Holy Spirit, Burn on the inside
On the inside

This old world keep falling apart
But Jesus is comin' to wherever you are Breathing life on the desert floor
And resurrection on the faces of the poor
On the faces of the poor

REPEAT CHORUS
