I was never one with much imagination
I used to keep my feelings deep inside
Something changed in me, oh so suddenly!
That we're moving in a critical direction
And every part of me is on the line

And it's hard to see when you're not here with me!

Chorus:

I wish I could reach across the sky,
Across the sky, across the sky, oh, oh
And bring you to me
Across the sky, from across the sky
You'll be flying high on the top of the world!
Across the sky, you'll be flying higher than the top of the world, yeah!

Trying to navigate my way through constellations
Trying to justify the madness of it all
But you hold the key and your mind is away from me!

Chorus:

I wish I could reach across the sky,
Across the sky, across the sky, oh, oh
And bring you to me
Across the sky, fly across the sky
You'll be flying high on the top of the world!

Looking out into the future
And my heart's in a better place, oh, oh!
It's hard and you're winning something
Missing something that's so far away!

Chorus:

I wish I could reach across the sky,
Across the sky, across the sky, oh, oh
And bring you to me
Across the sky, fly across the sky
You'll be flying high on the top of the world!

I won't let the moments pass me by

I need to have you beside me
And I don't care how hard I have to try
I break down the walls (break down these walls), yeah, yeah! (x2)
