You said goodbye, and didn't even look in my eyes
Two tears go by never though that you would telling me lies
And now my feet it's sikining to the ground
I'm going in down, down down, down
I'm steel living but I'm broken, still breathing but I'm broken, still breathin but I'm broken I'm still breathin but I'm broken, still feeling like I'm shotin
My heart it's beating bader, and shouldn't believe you Oooh ooh ooh
I shouldn't believe you, you, you I guess all off my love is never return
I was there for you, care for you, wipper in tough times
To stay by your side and aswer at you call, but you have to go behind my back and lose it all And I'm the only one that suffer now
I'm going in down, down down, down
I'm steel living but I'm broken, still breathing but I'm
broken, still breathin but I'm broken
I'm still breathin but I'm broken, still feeling like I'm
shotin
My heart it's beating bader, and shouldn't believe you Take a look in the mirrow and tell me what do you see?
Do you ever wonder you you walk away so easy?
I'm burning inside, I'm restless but you don't deserve all tears that I cry
I'm steel living but I'm broken, still breathing but I'm broken, still breathin but I'm broken
I'm still breathin but I'm broken, still feeling like I'm
shotin
My heart it's beating bader, and shouldn't believe you
I'm steel living but I'm broken, still breathing but I'm
broken, still breathin but I'm broken
I'm still breathin but I'm broken, still feeling like I'm
shotin
My heart it's beating bader, and shouldn't believe you
