And I still care for
These memories I have of times when you were there
Before you left this world
Hear you me my friend
We will meet again
I still hear you voice in my ears
Feel your thoughts in my tears I remember you
Remember all you were

Chorus:
(I'll never)
Forget these days
We were running out of time
And used to stand together

And I still hope for
The best for you wherever you may be now
Wherever you may go
And life feels so small
In face of it all
Determined to wither like flowers
But something will survive it all
A part of you remained
