"Dreams"

Must've thought I was so strong
Might've even thought I was the one for this all along
But I can't even dream and imagine how it seems
To carry the weight of this crown

CHORUS

It's not as easy as it seems
To carry the weight of your dreams
Hiding in the shadows
It's not as easy as it seems
A Pharaoh, an angel and everything inbetween
(Counting on home)

Might've come to a similar conclusion
Only mixed up the wake of confusion
But the glamour was mine, and the power divine
To carry the weight of this crown

CHORUS

And I don't know why
Savior fire
Carry me over
Stay this way
