A promise or a dare

I would jump if I knew you'd catch me

Staring over the edge

I can't tell if you'll be here for me

I close my eyes and make a wish

Turn out the lights and take a breath

Pray that when the wick is burned

You would say that it's all about love

Chorus:

You were there when I needed you

You were there when the skies broke wide, wide open

You were there when I needed you

You were there when the skies broke wide, wide open

You were never here

I remember you said

Love was more than your good intentions

Empty boxes on the floor

Things I never asked you for

I pray that when the wick is burned

You would say that it's all about love

You were there when I needed you

You were there when the skies broke wide, wide open

You were there when I needed you

You were there when the skies broke wide, wide open

I can't see the promise of

Excuses you fall upon

I pray to God not holding on

To things you've left undone

You were there when I needed you

You were there when the skies broke wide, wide open

You were there when I needed you

You were there when the skies broke wide, wide open

You were there when I needed you

You were there when the skies broke wide, wide open

You were there when I needed you

You were there when the skies broke wide, wide open

You were there when I

You were there when I

You were there when I needed you

@@SONG: Weighed Down

Light of the world

Are you still here?

And are we illuminating?

When love becomes a delicate display

So weak, dissolved by anything

Love lies here waiting all alone

Can a king be a king

Weighed down?

Our hearts, a bubble maker's dream

Moved on by winds of everything

As we deny that love is still the king

Not as weak as we make him out to be

Love lies here waiting all alone

Can a king be a king

Weighed down?

Weighed down

Weighed down

Weighed down

Weighed down
