Child of all creation
Don't let the world define you
And if you can't remember who you are
Let these words remind you

On the path of the empty handed
He will speak to the heart of the abandoned

These orphan hearts will find a home
Run to these arms, be not alone
Light is leading, love will find us all
(Love will find us, love will find us)
Love will find us all

So hard to feel the fires of home
When all we see is darkness
We forget we're not our own
And grasp for what's around us

Till the dawn starts to break around you
Let all the stars in the night remind you

These orphan hearts will find a home
Run to these arms, be not alone
Light is leading, love will find us all
(Love will find us, love will find us)
Love will find us all

These orphan hearts will find a home
Run to these arms, be not alone
Light is leading, love will find us

These orphan hearts will find a home
Run to these arms, be not alone
Light is leading, love will find us all
(Love will find us, love will find us)
Love will find us all

Run to these arms, be not alone
Run to these arms, be not alone
Run to these arms, be not alone
Run to these arms, be not alone

Love will find us all, love will find us all
Love will find us all, love will find us all

Love will find us all, love will find us all
(Run to these arms, be not alone)
Love will find us all
(Run to these arms, be not alone)

Love will find us, love will find us
(Love will find us all)
Love will find us, love will find us
(Love will find us all)
Love will find us, love will find us
Love will find us, love will find us
