Lost inside another argument
That's not what i meant
Equals compliment
And what i said just wasn't right
So i brought it to your attention

I'll be there when we finally make sense
When we give up our defense
Wouldn't want it anyway
Wouldn't want it anyway

These apologies are dentistry
If you're pulling teeth
Take a few from me
Cause i can't kiss my pride goodnight
Watch the sun go down
And still be right

I'll be there when we finally make sense
When we give up our defense
Wouldn't want it anyway
Wouldn't want it anyway

Wouldn't want it anyway
Wouldn't want it anyway
Wouldn't want it anyway
Wouldn't want it anyway
Wouldn't want it

I'll be there when we finally make sense
When we give up our defense
Wouldn't want it anyway

I'll be there when we finally make sense
When we give up our defense
Wouldn't want it anyway
Wouldn't want it anyway
Wouldn't want it
