"Make A Little Room"

Make a little room in my bed
Make a little room in my head
Make a little room in my heart
Maybe I can start all over again

Make a little room in my bed
Make a little room in my head
Make a little room in my heart
Maybe I can start all over again

I know you're torn
I know you're strugglin'
I know you thought that your heart was only mine
But then you met him
Started catchin' feelings
And now a tug of war is happening in your mind
Girl you should know that...

(We'll never be the same if you go)
We'll never be the same
I know you think he loves you but he don't
Cause he don't know you like I do
So choose before I do
I'm about to go ahead and

Make a little room in my bed
Make a little room in my head
Make a little room in my heart
Maybe I can start all over again

Make a little room in my bed
Make a little room in my head
Make a little room in my heart
Maybe I can start all over...

Make a little room in my bed
Make a little room in my head
Make a little room in my heart
Maybe I can start all over again

I ain't trying to push you but if you gotta go

Then you gotta go (Then you gotta go)
Girl I ain't gon' beg you to stay
My pride won't let me say the words
You acting like "I love you" is something you never heard
What more can I give, you've already got my heart
Maybe you want the pin to my black card
But either way you should know that...

(We'll never be the same if you go)
We'll never be the same
I know you think he loves you but he don't
Cause he don't know you like I do
So choose before I do
Cause I'm about to

Make a little room in my bed
Make a little room in my head
Make a little room in my heart
Maybe I can start all over again

Make a little room in my bed
Make a little room in my head
Make a little room in my heart
Maybe I can start all over...

Make a little room in my bed
Make a little room in my head
Make a little room in my heart
Maybe I can start all over again

I ain't trying to push you but if you gotta go
Then you gotta go (Then you gotta go)
I prefer you stay and work it out
Because my heart beats for you, no doubt
But if you choose to let us go
It will never be the same
If you come back when he hurts you
Someone may already have your place
Someone may already have your place girl

Make a little room in my bed
Make a little room in my head
Make a little room in my heart
Maybe I can start all over again

Make a little room in my bed
Make a little room in my head
Make a little room in my heart
Maybe I can start all over (again)

Make a little room in my bed
Make a little room in my head
Make a little room in my heart
Maybe I can start all over again

I ain't trying to push you but if you gotta go
Then you gotta go (Then you gotta go)
