When I lose the magic
When I miss the light
When my head is upside down
And two and two is five

Talk to me
Go break the silence
Talk to me
Can't you see

Chorus:
Sometimes the world is way too much on such a simple
man
The answer to my question is hard to understand
I must admit
On days like this I need you by my side
So take my hand and keep my love alive

I was only dreaming
Walking in the air
I forgot to let you know
That I really care

Stay with me
Don't let me leave you
Stay with me
Don't set me free

Chorus:
Sometimes the world is way too much on such a simple
The answer to my question is hard to understand
I must admit
On days like this I need you by my side
So take my hand and keep my love alive
Everything around us
Is looking pretty strange
Tell me am I sober or insane
